This correspondence was so voluminons that no effort was made to read it today, but Magistrate Brunson will read it carefully and either announce his decision at a later date or fix another time for hearing the arguments by attorneys for both sides. Meanwhile Dr. Milard has been remanded to jail pending the magist-ate's decison in the matter.

The contention of the attorneys for the prosecution is that the interlocutory divorce granted Mrs. Ada Miliard December 4, 1904, prevents either party from marrying for one year thereafter, while the defense holds this to be a mere technicality, inasmuch as Dr. Millard had not obtained a copy of the decree and was ignorant of druggists. its restrictions.

DEATH OF MR. S. LOGAN LANG.

A Prominent and Progressive Citizen of Camden Died Suddenly of Appoplexy.

Camden, May 4 -Mr. S. Logan haug died very suddenly at his home here today of apoplexy. He was apparently a very strong, healthy man and had been in his office attending to business this morning as usual. He went to his home about midday and though complaining a little was reading his paper and joking with his family a few minutes before he expired.

He was born on the 7th of March 1854, in this county. His parents were Doncan McRae Lang and Honoria Logan and he has a large family connection. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mary Frierson of Stateburg. His second wife was Miss Lula Salmond and she with Miss Honoria Laug the only child by his first wife survive him.

Santo Domingo Today.

Mr. Winthrop Packard, writing in Collier's for May 6, quotes the President of the Republic as saying: "It is with sorrow that I say it. but Santo Domingo is a republic only in name. I hope to make it one in reality, but the condition of the people at present prevents. There are in the world three conditions of society—the savage, the barbarous, and the civilized. My people are in a large part in a state of the semi savage, at most only emerging into the better state."

"To understand political conditions on the island," says Mr. Packard, "it is necessary to keep this statement continually in mind. Not that there are no educated and refined people heve: there are many such, but the pany has a capital stock of $1,000,000. larger ones in the interior, the percentage of illiteracy is practically one hundred, and the people know no more of what takes place in the outside world or in neighboring d stricts than do the tribes of Central Africa.

A Big Fire in Greenville.

Greenville, May 3.-At 7.15 o'clock tonight five broke out in the millinery department of J. Thomas Arnold's large dry goods store and for a time it seemed that the whole bloca on Main street between Coffee and North streets would be destroyed. The fire department did splendid work and kept the fire from spreading.

The store was compleely gutted and the stock, estimated to be worth $60,-000, was ruined. There is insurance for about half the value.

THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL.

Bishop Capers Discusses Question of Coadjutor-Sermon by Dr. W. A. Guerry.

Camden, May 3.—The 115th session of the annual council of the diocese of South Carolina was opened yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The service was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Ellison, Capers, D. D., bishop, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. W. A. Guerry, B. D., chaplain of the University of the South and a native South Carolinian. Mr. Guerry's subject was, "The Call to Christian Ministry." The sermon was a most excellent and thoughtful one and well delivered. It is a great pleasure to Mr. Guerry's many friends in South Caroilna to have him mingle among them again. There was a preliminary service held Monday night, at which Rev. C. W. Boyd of Cheraw preached an able sermon.

Immeditely affer service this morning, the bishop had the roll of clerical and lay delegates colled. Upon the secretary's announcing that a quorum of both orders was present, the chairman declared the council duly organized for business. He then appointed the following committees: Roll of the clergy; Rev. Messrs. J. H. Tillingbast, H. H. Covington and

Bishop Capers then delivered his annual addres-, which was beautiful in its apostolic spirit. He discussed many important matters and reviewed the work of the whole dincese for the past year, wh ch. he said, is of an encouraging nature. Perhaps the most important matter referred to is the matter of coadjutor. He told the council that they could discuss the matter if they thought best and that he would give whatever conclu-ion they came to a fair and full consideraton. It is not known what action the council will take or if they take any

After bishop's address, the conneil adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9.30 o'clock. There mas a service last night and sermon by Rev. W. P. Witsell of Colombia.

The convention adjourned today after unanimously selecting Anderson as the meeting place of next year's convention Invitations were also ex tended by Charleston and Union.

The matter of electing an assistiant bishop was brought op today and after some consideration it was decided to carry the matter over to next year,

The same standing committee was elected except that Mr. Covington of Sumter was elected to succeed Mr. Johnson of Greenville.
